Title: Prayer of Virtues

Author: Bartholomew

Love blooms in the Virtue of Compassion

Truth blooms in the Virtue of Honesty

Courage blooms in the Virtue of Valor Pure of Principles and pure in Virtue

Love with Truth bloom in the Virtue of Justice

Truth with Courage bloom in the Virtue of Honor Courage with Love bloom in the Virtue of Sacrifice

Paired of Principles but pure in Virtue

Love with Truth with Courage, the Principles three

When joined together in total yield Spirituality

When shunned together in void yield Humility

The all or nothing of Principles but pure in Virtue

Our lives based on Virtues granted through Principles

Our lives rooted in Principles granting the Virtues

Our society based on Virtues granted through
Principles

Our society rooted in Principles granting the Virtues

Prayer Defining Virtue

The path of Virtue is neither crooked nor straight

It swerves and jumps and dives and turns Adapting to the range of perplexities thrown out by life

But for those upon the path, it rolls smooth before them

The light of Virtue burns neither bright nor dim

It flashes and brightens and dims and flickers

Adapting to the depth of darkness it must overcome

But for those whose light it baths, it glows with constant warmth

The feeling of Virtue is neither rough nor smooth It scrapes and soothes and bruises and scratches

Adapting to the level of resistance it must overpower

But for those who feel the caress, it wraps with soft silkiness

The life of Virtue is neither tranquil nor turbulent

It shakes and trembles and glides and pauses

Adapting to the intense complexities it will encounter

But for those who live such a life, it rewards with steady calm

Prayer of Devotion to the Virtues

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues

We live our lives walking similar paths That intertwine in the single path

The lighted path of Virtue

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We choose our actions by their guide

Giving a harmony of Virtuous acts

Leading to a Balance of
the Virtues
the Virtues

We seek others who will walk with us

Along the path of warming light
The warming light of the Virtues

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues

We wish to share the inner peace
An inner peace derived from Virtue

A Virtuous and warming tranquility

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We find for life a depth of meaning

A Virtuous meaning that gives us strength

The strength we need to follow Virtue
the Virtues

We immerse ourselves in Virtue's Light

Allowing us to be People of Light And become the Lightbringers of Virtue

Prayer from the Inner Core

Deep within there is a place

A place that defines who we are
That central place that
gives us strength

The strength that guides our feet to step

Our feet to step upon our path
The path that's chosen by our source

That source that comes from that place

For some that place holds a void
A void that takes from who they are

And has them take from those they know

With every touch it takes some more Spreading out to increase the void

Including more within its grasp

Voiding all that's in that place
For some that place is simply numb

Simply numb and caring not

No care nor hope nor vision true Lifeless, silent through and through

Unaffected by daily trials

Treading onward in a stupor

Feeling nothing from that place

For some that place is full of chaos

Chaotic swirling without a meaning Giving to treading random paths

Paths leading them nowhere fast

Leaving behind a broken trail With broken lives and broken promises

Swirling randomly from that place

lined in order Ordered forth in straightened lines

Going straight while never swerving

Never varied to either side

Treading on despite all else

Ignoring every choice that's given

Ordered straight from within that place
filled of Virtue

Virtue that wisely guides their steps

Moving forward upon their path
A path that knows when to swerve

To swerve and find all that's true

And guide us with a blinding light Radiating Virtue from that place
